

K22N 0181

Reg. No. :

Name :

I Semester M.A. Degree (CBSS – Reg./Supple./Imp.)
Examination, October 2022
(2020 Admission Onwards)
GOVERNANCE AND POLITICS
GAP1C01 : Debates in Political Theory

Time : 3 Hours

Max. Marks : 80

SECTION – A

Answer any ten questions (paragraph).

1. Normative Political Theory.
2. Historical Approach.
3. Post-Behaviouralism.
4. Direct Democracy.
5. Political Obligation.
6. Subject Political Culture.
7. Categorical Imperative.
8. Entitlement theory.
9. Human Capabilities.
10. Traditional Authority.
11. Political Globalisation.
12. Value Pluralism.

(10×2=20)

SECTION – B

Answer any six questions (short essay).

13. Explain, how Behaviouralism influenced the development of empirical political theory ?
14. Bring out the Instrumentalist views on Democracy.

P.T.O.

K22N 0181

15. Explain the innovative aspects of Procedural Democracy.
16. Examine the concept of Civic Citizenship.
17. Discuss the Kantian views on Freedom and Autonomy.
18. Elucidate the basis of Authority.
19. Analyse the building blocks of the Gramscian concept of Civil Society.
20. How Civil society actors contribute to the generation of Social Capital ? (6×5=30)

SECTION – C

Answer any two questions (essay).

21. Examine the meaning and nature of classical political theory.
22. Discuss the communitarian critique of liberal views of justice and liberty.
23. Explain the different dimensions of post-modernist conceptions of power.
24. Analyse the Marxist conception of state based on contemporary political debates.

(2×15=30)